

Zodys Stage Pre-Easter Style Show

A pre-Easter fashion show for ready-to-wear, held Thursday, March 16, at Zodys Department Store, 182nd and Hawthorne in Redondo Beach, captured the interest of a large throng of local home-makers.

The fashion show, co-ordinated by the well-known consultant Jan Rynella, displayed a rainbow galaxy of women's and children's Easter pastels in dresses, suits, coats, and complete outfits. The all-important Easter hats, purses, and jewelry made their appearance too, in a dazzling parade of colors and designs.

Zody's, the self-service department store with 59 complete departments has an extensive high fashion department offering everything necessary for a completely accessorized Easter outfit for every member of the family, including Dads and young men.

RAINBOW PASTELS . . . When several hundred women of the area attended the fashion show put on by Zodys Dept. Store, they saw a galaxy of Easter pastels in dresses, pictured above, as well as in Easter bonnets, purses and jewelry.

PAID TRIBUTE . . . Mrs. James Hunter, left, Honorary Life Membership chairman of the Evelyn Carr PTA presents the life membership pins to Mrs. Perry Baker, president of the PTA and Richard Welte, school principal. The award is recognition of services to the youth of the community.

FASHION BENEFIT . . . Mothers of the Newton PTA made and modeled their own fashions as a money raising project for the Newton PTA. The spring fashion show was under the direction of Mrs. Carl Johnson, ways and means chairman. Modeling are from left, Louise and Denise Desquene in mother-daughter costumes, Looking on are Jane and Layne Wilder, 8th grade twins, at the right and Terry Pickering, in a bunny suit.

Mothers Entertained at Hat Party

The first "Chapeau" luncheon for mothers and friends of Woodcraft Rangers and Rangerettes was held Monday at the Moose Lodge in Torrance with 90 persons attending.

The tables were decorated with a centerpiece of manzanita bedecked with miniature hats and bows. The registration desk had a gaily decorated ticket receptacle.

Luncheon prepared by Mrs. Eileen Woods and her assistants was served by Mrs. Alberta Ray, Alice Toro, Lois Hoover, Kay Calas, Theda Deiselhorse, Helen Proffitt, Jean Maybee, Mary Sylvan, Edna Muir, Ruth Irons, Lorraine Tucera, Vesta Longpre, Jean Chomori, Helen Whitmore and Ann Worthington. Ray Wetzel thanked the following people: Sherrill King for baby sitting; Randy Halverson and Tom Nakagawa for assisting in the parking of cars; Wanda Fones and Gloria Wetzel for distribution of tickets; Mary Sylvan, Helen Whitmore, Gloria Wetzel and Doris Elkins for obtaining the many prizes; Dorothy Larsen for the beautiful job of table decorations and programs; Lil Keith and Juanita Wheeler for handling the registration; and Doris Elkins, Gloria Wetzel and Beverly Weaver for acting as hostesses.

Mrs. Gert Schmitz of Lynwood, was introduced and awarded more than 36 door prizes, compliments of the local merchants, while the judges were busy determining the winners from a group of beautiful and outstanding hats, which the women made for the luncheon.

The judges, Mrs. Alma Tucker, Mrs. Theo Gilmore, and Mrs. Ellamae Wittenburg were introduced and announced the winners. The sweepstakes prize was awarded to Mrs. Wanda Fones. Prizes for the most beautiful hats went to Mary Sylvan, first; Mrs. June Forrester, second; and Mrs. George Murray, third.

The funniest hats were made by Mrs. Ginger Roche, first; Mrs. June Jertz, second; and Mrs. Meryney Crawford, third.

Club Hostess

Mrs. J. H. Hull entertained her club at a dessert bridge on Wednesday evening at her home, 1730 Hickory Ave.

At the final count in the bridge games, Mrs. Mark Caldwell held high score and Mrs. Howard Huizing, second.

Mrs. Hull's guests were Mmes. Kenneth Boulter, Jim Crockett, Allen Hofferber, C. Albert Smith, Mark Caldwell, Howard Huizing and William Christian.

Mrs. Hofferber will entertain the club at its next meeting at her Rolling Hills home.

Local Women

Attend Retreat

Under the sponsorship of Catholic Daughters of America, Court Our Lady of Victory, 21 women from the South Bay area attended a Retreat at the Holy Spirit Retreat House, Westchester Place, Los Angeles.

Arrangements for the annual affair for the local court were made by Miss Mary Futterer, Share-the-Faith chairman, and Mrs. Stacy Rodman, grand regent.

Retreat Master was Rev. Alme La Casse, White Father.
